

Well there goes another year

Ours started with having the car stolen on Australia Day, so we got a new one and went for a couple of drives during the year –Airlie Beach and back (5000K), Cooma, Albury, Yass and home (1200k). Other than that we have been very quiet. We have just put in a new kitchen and will be having a BBQ on Sat 15/12 if you are free –late notice I know.

John: took a redundancy and has completed Massage Therapy Cert III at TAFE. He will be opening for business soon. He got his Gold Pass and Gold Watch from the railways. He will be starting Ass Dip in Health Science (massage therapy) next year – part time so he can work as well. He has also got Responsible Gaming & Alcohol and a Coach driver' s qualifications. john.castle@bigpond.com

Helen: is working in Wollongong permanently. I have a laptop, mobile phone, a car and can dial up from home so Pat reckons I just sit around typing things and pretending to work. I call on businesses and do GST checks. I am still doing family history but am concentrating on an indexing project for historical newspapers helen.castle@bigpond.com

Evan: spent half the year driving paper trucks and the other bit delivering EI Gas bottles all over Sydney. He now lives in Bundaberg with Janet and they are expecting our first grandchild in April. Evan works in a call-centre selling welding equipment. ecastle@bigpond.com

Pat: spent the first half of the year driving a lift on Hamilton Island and living at Airlie Beach, the second half he worked in Sydney, living at Leichhardt during the week. Work has dropped off till after Xmas so he is having a holiday. pat_castle@hotmail.com
